INSTRUCTIONS

- 1. Using a fan paintbrush, paint the yellow basecoat with #46 Sunny Side Up. Let the paint dry - it will look chalky and be cool to the touch. Paint a second coat of yellow.
- 2. Blot #104 Orange Juice paint on the palette with a sponge, then use the sponge to evenly apply paint to a butterfly stamp.
- 3. Once the stamp is covered, hover the stamp directly over the location you'd like it to go. When you are ready, press down firmly with both hands and apply pressure at several different points. Hold the stamp in contact with the plate for a few seconds, then lift straight up.
- 4. Clean the butterfly stamp.
- 5. Blot #41 Perfectly Purple paint on the paint palette, then use the sponge to evenly apply paint to a butterfly stamp. Repeat step #3.
- 6. Reapply #41 Perfectly Purple paint to the stamp to create the second purple butterfly. Repeat step #3.
- 7. Blot #39 Blue Green paint on the paint palette, then use the sponge to evenly apply paint to a dragonfly stamp. Repeat step #3. Reapply paint for each dragonfly.
- 8. Blot #29 Grasshopper paint on the paint palette, then use the sponge to evenly apply paint to a spiral stamp. Repeat step #3. Reapply paint for each spiral.
- 9. Blot #17 Margarita paint on the paint palette, then use the sponge to evenly apply paint to a spiral stamp. Repeat step #3. Reapply paint for each spiral.
- 10. Blot #98 Red Head paint on the paint palette, then use the sponge to evenly apply paint to a flower stamp. Repeat step #3. Reapply paint for each flower.
- 11. Blot #85 Oceanscape paint on the paint palette, then use the sponge to evenly apply paint to a heart stamp. Repeat step #3. Reapply paint for each heart.
- 12. Blot #104 Orange Juice paint, then use the sponge to add a border around the rim of the plate. For best results, apply paint with even pressure, and at the same angle, all the way around.
- 13. Glaze and fire.
